

December 1938

Thursday 1

A fine clear morning
I drove over to town this morning to the N.B. Store. The Plain left early going S.E.
Duncan got the team shod as the Road is getting slippery on account of the mild weather

Friday 2

Continued very fine weather Very mild Duncan White washed the Barn. I was busy at mining accounts. Susie Barber very sick

Saturday 3

A fine clear day a little cold Duncan finished White Wash
the Barn and got the mail Johnny came for a visit and also the Birneys

Sunday 4

A snow storm this morning but cleared up towards noon
A Plain quid at the Lake this evening

Monday 5

Blowing a cold West Wind all day
I went over with some mail this morning Duncan at Wood. Very little doing
