January 1935

Saturday 19

55 below this morning clear and cold all day as of the Sunday came over to day Mrs B is not has been sick for some time a little milder this evening 48 below the wind blowing from the West. The Police went to Halfway River to arrest Mrs Tomkins for the Horse Stealing

Sunday 20

55 below this Morning but fine all day blowing a West Wind but it changed to North towards evening and very Cold and Clear 50 below at 10 oclock

Monday 21

60 below this Morning Cold all day I was busy at the wood Walter went and assisted up the Horses and then he went to get the Mail it got in about 7 oclock Walter got back about 11 oclock with the Mail. Cold and clear 6 Night

Tuesday 22

65 below this Morning the Glass rose at 65 Very Cold all day I was busy at wood a little Milder towards evening