

June 1935

Monday 17

A fine warm day Johnny and I drove to the Post Office and got the mail and then we went to the H.T.S. I got back at home cloudy this evening + I put in a few squats this evening

Tuesday 18

fine this morning I was busy working in the garden Johnny over at the H.T.S. started to rain this evening Wind from North East and very cloudy

Wednesday 19

started to rain early this morning and continued ^{throughout} the day cloud up towards evening I was to plant some vegetable marrow and celeriac no mail

Thursday 20

A fine clear day the mail arrived a few people around and also May and her boys cloudy this evening