

November 1935

Thursday 21

X A fine mild and blowing a west wind. H. McLeod's freight train left this morning for Siskina. At 11:00 H.B. Biegl's truck left. Eliza is very sick. Frank took her to the hospital this morning.

Friday 22

Continues fine mild weather but raining very little. The frost north. Frank cut some firewood on the Lion River. Saw up firewood after dinner.

Saturday 23

A fine warm day. Frank hauled a load of firewood I drove over to the hospital to see Ma. She is very sick. A number of people at town looking for the mail. It did not get in till late. Blowing a strong west wind to night and raining.

Sunday 24

A fine mild day.

Monday 25

Blowing a strong west wind. Raining all day. 3 sleds of Doris left this morning for Siskina River with freight. I drove over to the H.B. this morning for a few supplies. The wind shifted to north to night and turned cold.